August 30, 2024

High School Time Capsules

Ms. Carlson's 9th-grade English classes diligently decorate their personal time-capsules. Inside the paper towel capsule, each student placed 5 items that he/she thinks will still be useful in their year of graduation, 2028. Students also placed a paragraph explaining why they chose the 5 items. Once sealed and decorated, the time capsule was signed. Ms. Carlson will keep the time capsules safe and return them to be opened in 2028.

The Environmental Science class participated in an activity after learning about the Tragedy of the Commons which is a concept in environmental science that describes a situation where people act in their own self-interest and deplete a shared resource, such as a pasture or the atmosphere.
